Public Notice for Public Hearing related to the Jessamine County Judicial Center Project

The Jessamine County Project Development Board has scheduled a public hearing for a proposed Kentucky Court of Justice Facility for Wednesday, May 12th, 2021 at 4:00pm Eastern Time. The purpose of the hearing is to receive site proposals from property owners and present them for open discussion. The hearing will be held in the Jessamine County Courthouse, in the Circuit Courtroom, located at 101 North Main Street, Nicholasville, KY 40356. Due to the COVID – 19 pandemic, social distancing and the use of a facial covering will be enforced during the meeting.

Details of the proposed project are available for examination at the Office of the Jessamine County Judge/Executive, 101 North Main Street, Nicholasville, KY 40356, between 8:30am and 4:30 pm Monday through Friday until end of day May 10th, 2021.

Interested property owners should submit plats of property to be considered, asking price, and statements of any known historical or environmental concerns. Individuals who wish to submit proposals or comment on the proposed facility may present oral or written statements at the public hearing and will need to email the office of the Jessamine County Judge/Executive at dwest@jessamineco.com to notify intent to present or make comment prior to the May 12th meeting.
