

How to Identify Legitimate FEMA Staff

If you are a survivor of Kentucky April storms, straight-line winds, tornadoes, floods, landslides and mudslides, you may also be a target of con artists and criminals who try to obtain money or steal personal information.

FEMA Disaster Survivor Assistance teams, housing inspectors, and other officials are working in areas impacted by the April severe storms throughout Kentucky.

- FEMA personnel always carry official identification badges with a photo.
- FEMA representatives never charge applicants for disaster assistance, inspections, or help in filling out applications.
- Don't believe anyone who promises a disaster grant in return for payment.
- Don't give your banking information to a person claiming to be a FEMA housing inspector.
 - FEMA inspectors never collect your personal financial information.
