

Accessibility Statement for Jessamine County, KY

Jessamine County is committed to ensuring this website is accessible to all users, including individuals with disabilities. We strive to provide a user-friendly experience and continuously work to improve accessibility across our digital services.

We aim to conform to Level AA guidelines from the World Wide Web Consortium's standards, known as WCAG 2.1. They help make web content more accessible to users with a wide range of abilities.

Ongoing Efforts

Jessamine County is actively working to improve accessibility through the following efforts:

- Routine testing using automated and manual accessibility tools
- Identification and remediation of known accessibility issues
- Documentation of improvements and implementation of best practices
- Training for staff and content managers responsible for website updates

Accessibility Tools and Approach

This website may utilize accessibility tools to enhance usability and provide user-controlled adjustments. These tools support accessibility efforts but do not replace comprehensive accessibility practices.

Jessamine County is committed to ongoing evaluation and improvement to ensure accessibility standards are met as effectively as possible.
